Revising Your Final Draft

Use the chart on this page to evaluate your own work or that of a peer. Put a checkmark in the column that tells how well you (or your peer) completed each stage of the process.

	Very Well	Fairly Well	Not So Well
Prewriting Did you complete the T-Chart?
Drafting Did you write information boxes for the margins of "Fields of Change: Autumn/Winter," using appropriate text structures?
Revising Did you: • make sure each box has a central idea and supporting details? • rewrite sentences to clarify meaning?
Editing Did you: • capitalize the names of countries, races, and nationalities? • lowercase the names of the seasons?

Use feedback from this chart to improve your boxes and prepare final drafts.

Publishing Your Final Draft

Add visual elements to your boxes like those in the book. Compare boxes with a partner.
